Press Note.

The Government of India have observed that on a number of occasions non-official organisations or private persons have invited foreigners to attend Conferences, discussion groups and lecture tours. Not infrequently both the persons invited and their hosts have been put to great inconvenience because of the delay or failure to obtain the necessary visa facilities for visiting the country. The Government of India wish to emphasise that in order to avoid this difficulty it will be desirable for private persons and non-official bodies to inform in advance to the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs of their intention to invite foreigners. Only after the Ministry of Home Affairs have agreed to issue visas in favour of the persons whom it is proposed to invite should invitations be sent out. This will prevent last-minute rush, inconvenience and possible misunderstandings.
